	13.02.2004 Shri Prashant Mishra, counsel for the petitioners. Shri Shailendra Shukla, Adv. appears on behalf of Dr. N.K. Shukla, Sr. Counsel for respondent No.1 & 2. The petitioner has preferred this Writ Petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India challenging the legality, validity and propriety of the orders (Annexure P-1 to P-3) whereby the respondents have ordered for recovery of amounts running into Lacs of rupees from each of the petitioner because of audit objection of the Accountant General, Gwalior. It has been mentioned that the recovery is being made on the ground that during the posting of the petitioners in the particular Kisan Rice Mill in the year 1995-96 & 96-97 the shortage in quantity of paddy was more than the permissible limit. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the shortage was within the permissible limits and no opportunity of hearing was given to the petitioners in order to explain their position and in the audit conducted by the department no shortage was found. However, all of a sudden the shortage was deducted while conducting audit by the office of the Accountant General, Gwalior. In the circumstances the learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners may be allowed to make a detailed representation to respondent No.1 and in turn
